

Public Sector Equality Duty

2024-25

Pele Trust and Heddon-on-the-Wall St. Andrew's CE Primary School are committed to equality.

Our school aims are that every student in school is supported to:

1. Love themselves;
2. Love others;
3. Love learning;
4. Love life.

We are committed to a whole school approach to equality and consider it important for pupils to learn about equality and human rights. We wholeheartedly concur with the Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) statement:

'To reap the full benefits of equality and human rights education, it is essential to teach topics in an environment which respects the rights and differences of both students and teachers. Without an equality and human rights culture within the classroom and school as a whole, learning about these topics can at best appear irrelevant, and at worst, hypocritical. The respect and tolerance it teaches will help staff and students create a healthier, happier, fairer school culture, and could lead to reductions in bullying and other negative behaviour, and improvements in attainment and aspirations.'

In all aspects of school life we are committed to fairness and equality; this includes:

- our curriculum;
- assembly programme;
- pastoral support;
- extra-curricular programme and activities.

There are three main elements within the act and in carrying out our functions, as a school, we must have regard for the need to:

1. Eliminate discrimination and other conduct prohibited by the act;
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it;
3. Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

This duty applies to all students, staff and others using the facilities. At all times we will give relevant and proportionate consideration to the PSED when considering our provision.

Protected characteristics under the Act are:

- Disability;
- Gender reassignment;
- Pregnancy and maternity;
- Race;
- Religion or belief;
- Sex;
- Sexual orientation;
- Age (only applicable to staff, not students);
- Marriage and Civil Partnerships (only applicable to staff, not students).

NB: Age and marriage and civil partnership are not protected characteristics within the school's provisions for students.

Our school will have due regard to advancing equality of opportunity including making a clear and consistent commitment to:

- Minimise or eliminate disadvantages suffered by person or persons who share a relevant protected characteristic;
- Take steps to meet the needs of a person or persons who share a protected characteristic that are different from the needs of others who do not share it;
- Encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate fully in public life;
- Encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate fully in any school activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

In exercising our duty we will consider the six Brown principles of 'due regard':

1. Awareness
  - a. all staff know and understand what the law requires.
2. Timeliness
  - a. implications considered before they are implemented.
3. Rigour
  - a. open-minded and rigorous analysis, including parent/student voice.
4. Non-delegation
  - a. the PSED cannot be delegated.
5. Continuous
  - a. ongoing all academic year.
6. Record-keeping
  - a. keep notes and records of decisions & meetings.

Pele Trust and Heddon-on-the-Wall St. Andrew's CE Primary School welcome the opportunity to be transparent and accountable. Pele Trust fulfils the specific duties of the Act by publishing their Equality Information and Objectives on the Trust website and each school's website.

We aim to present the information in a format that is easy to read and can be accessed simply from the school website.
